2 WAYS TO GET THE MOST FROM THIS WORKBOOK

1. So much of the value of what you'll learn from me during all three of the events in this series will happen in the hours and days that follow, as you think about all you've learned.

Because of this, I would like you to PRINT this workbook and use it during my event to take notes on anything I say that resonates for you or makes you say (or think), "ah-ha."

It will also help you to connect more deeply with all I have to share with you. (If you want to save ink, it's not necessary to print the cover.)

2. It's very likely that what I share with you during these events will inspire you to want to do something significant afterwards, like become more focused in some area of your life, or make a big change in how you spend your time.

But inertia is the nemesis of transformation, so instead of sitting back and waiting until that happens during the event, I encourage you to start deliberately capitalizing on the momentum you've already created simply by signing up for my event series and downloading this workbook.

To accomplish that, I want you to think of something you can do in the next 24 hours that will either move forward some project of yours that hasn't gotten the attention it deserves, or that is the first step into a brand-new project of some kind.

This will get your “creative juices” flowing prior to the event, which is the perfect space for you to be in during your time with me!

Do this before each event in the series and create some transformative momentum in your life!

During My 90-Minute Online Event, “Living in Omni-Love: Accessing Your Universal Self & Falling in Love with the World,” you’ll discover how to...

- Fully embody evolutionary love in every area of your life, and feel it experientially as your Oneness with the inner impulse of evolution as it evolves you in real time
- Use techniques as simple as journaling to communicate with your deeper mind and allow it to answer you from the connective current of evolutionary wisdom and love from which it flows
- Step into the passionate power of the Universe flowing through you, guiding you to higher levels of embodiment of the evolutionary creative impulse, leading you to greater achievement in the world
- Become a living expression of that evolutionary wisdom and impulse just like so many of the great spiritual leaders both ancient and modern who all made it clear that they were models for the New Human we are evolving toward

Use the following pages to take notes on any of the above topics including any “ah-ha”s, insights and inspirations that happen for you during the event. There may be many!
